ENGLISH

Continuing Professional Development Policy

Organization : New Brunswick Professional Association of Criminology (NBPAC)
Version : 1.0 Adopted : June 2, 2026 Updated : September 25, 2026

Continuing professional development ensures members maintain and grow their competence for the benefit of the public and the profession.

1. Annual Requirement

Each regular member must accumulate at least 20 continuing-education units (CEUs) per year, of which at least 3 address professional ethics. One CEU equals one hour of recognized activity.

2. Eligible Activities

Activity type	Annual cap
Courses, workshops and conferences	20 CEUs
Recognized online training	10 CEUs
Presenting or teaching	8 CEUs
Publication or research	8 CEUs
Service on a professional committee	5 CEUs

3. Declaration and Evidence

Members log their activities and keep supporting records for three years. An annual declaration is submitted at renewal.

4. Verification

The continuing-education committee may randomly audit declarations. Failure to meet the requirement may lead to a remediation plan or suspension.

5. Bilingual Access

The Association strives to offer or recognize activities in both French and English, so that all members can meet their requirements in the language of their choice.

6. Exemptions

Partial exemptions may be granted for parental leave, extended illness or other valid reasons, on request to the committee.