Partnership Memorandum of Understanding (Template)

Organization : New Brunswick Professional Association of Criminology (NBPAC)

Version : 1.0 Adopted : June 2, 2026

Template memorandum of understanding between the NBPAC and a partner institution (for example a university) to develop and accredit training. To be adapted and legally validated before signing.

Between: the New Brunswick Professional Association of Criminology ("the NBPAC"), and: _____ ("the Institution"),

hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties".

1. Preamble

The NBPAC sets professional standards and accredits training that earns continuing-education units (CEUs). The Institution has relevant academic and professional expertise. The Parties wish to collaborate for the benefit of members, students and the public.

2. Purpose

This memorandum governs the development, delivery and accreditation of continuing-education training in criminology, in synchronous (live) and asynchronous (self-paced) formats, in both official languages.

3. Objectives

- Design rigorous, up-to-date training relevant to the criminologist's scope of practice.
- Have this training accredited and award CEUs.
- Foster knowledge transfer between academia and practice.
- Contribute to the protection of the public in New Brunswick.

4. Roles and responsibilities

The NBPAC agrees to:

- Review and accredit training under its Training-Accreditation Policy.
- Award CEUs and keep the register.
- Promote the training to its members.
- Ensure compliance with ethics and scope-of-practice limits.

The Institution agrees to:

- Provide qualified professors or professionals.
- Design rigorous, evidence-based content.
- Deliver the agreed training.
- Collaborate on quality evaluation.

5. Accreditation and CEUs

Accreditation and the awarding of CEUs follow the NBPAC Training-Accreditation Policy. One CEU equals one hour of recognized activity.

6. Intellectual property

Each Party retains ownership of the content it creates. The Parties grant each other a licence to use it for the purposes of this partnership. Any co-production is covered by a separate written agreement.

7. Official languages

The Parties strive to offer training in both official languages, according to participants' needs.

8. Financial matters

Costs, registration fees and any revenue sharing are set out in an appendix to this memorandum. Unless otherwise stated, each Party bears its own costs.

9. Confidentiality

The Parties protect confidential information exchanged and use it only for the purposes of this partnership.

10. Term, renewal and termination

This memorandum takes effect on signing for a term of _____ (e.g. three years), renewable by written agreement. Either Party may terminate it on _____ days' written notice.

11. Nature of the agreement

This memorandum expresses the Parties' intention to collaborate. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, it creates no binding financial obligation; detailed terms are set out in specific agreements or appendices.

12. Amendment and dispute resolution

Any amendment must be made in writing and signed by the Parties. Disputes are first resolved through good-faith discussion.
